Special Announcement:

Due to requirements in Washington, D.C., Deputy Secretary of Homeland Security, Jane Holl Lute, regretfully must cancel her visit to Jacksonville on Tuesday, February 2. In her place, she is sending Juliette Kayyem, assistant secretary for the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, Department of Homeland Security, to discuss "Counter Terrorism and Keeping the Homeland Safe," at the Global Issues Evening/Distinguished Voices presentation at the UNF University Center.

The World Affairs Council of Jacksonville and the University of North Florida are co-hosting an evening with Juliette Kayyem, assistant secretary for the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs, Department of Homeland Security. She will address "Counter Terrorism and Keeping the Homeland Safe."

Join us at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 2, at UNF's University Center. Complimentary tickets are required. World Affairs Council members can reserve tickets through the Council's office at (904) 280-8162. Tickets can also be reserved at www.unf.edu/lectures or (904) 620-2117.

This event is sponsored by Water Street Capital and Coastal Construction Products, Inc.

Please see the attached bio and photo for Kayyem.

The World Affairs Council of Jacksonville is a non-partisan, nonprofit organization devoted to promoting understanding of world affairs by sponsoring public programs for all ages, fostering discussion of international issues and opportunities, and providing a venue for people to meet others with similar interests. Our mission is to promote an understanding of the world and its people and to engage citizens of Northeast Florida in becoming informed participants in the global community.

At the University of North Florida, students are our first priority. UNF recognizes that every student is an individual, with different goals, learning styles and needs. UNF has more than 16,000 students and offers five colleges of distinction: the Coggin College of Business, Brooks College of Health, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Computing, Engineering and Construction, and the College of Education and Human Services.
