Haskell President and CEO, Steven T. Halverson, to Discuss Challenges of Global Business on Tuesday, February 16

An important part of the Council's mission is to support the future success of Jacksonville as an international trading center and ensure that our citizens are informed participants in the First Coast's business and economic policy debates. The Global Business Luncheons offer invaluable insight into international political, economic, business and financial trends - information that is important to First Coast businesses as they make both short and long term development, staffing and investment decisions.

On behalf of that World Affairs Council of Jacksonville, I would like to announce that Steven T. Halverson, president and chief executive officer, The Haskell Company will be the guest speaker at a timely Global Business Luncheon at The River Club, 1 East Independent Drive on Tuesday, February 16 from noon until 1:30 pm. The topic of discussion will be, "The Challenges of Going Global."

Table Sponsorship for 10 is available for $1,000.00. Individual tickets are available for purchase for $45.00 each for Council members and $65.00 each for non-members. Please call the Council office at (904) 280-8162 or visit our Web site at www.worldaffairscounciljax.org to purchase tickets.

This event is co-hosted with the Gate Governors Club and is supported by Water Street Capital
The Media Sponsor is the Jacksonville Business Journal.

Please see the attached bio. and photo for Halverson.

The World Affairs Council of Jacksonville is a non-partisan, nonprofit organization devoted to promoting understanding of world affairs by sponsoring public programs for all ages, fostering discussion of international issues and opportunities, and providing a venue for people to meet others with similar interests. Our mission is to promote an understanding of the world and its people and to engage citizens of Northeast Florida in becoming informed participants in the global community.
