WORLDQUEST 2009- No Jeopardy...Just Fun!

WorldQuest is a highly acclaimed, international trivia competition, held in scores of cities across the U.S. each year. This year's topics include Art, Music and Culture; Israel & Palestine: A Historical Perspective; Food and Drink; Global Business & Finance; Emerging Powers: India, China & Brazil; and Current Events...all with an international flavor. It is an exciting, fun, and terrifically educational evening!

Tuesday, April 21 from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the UNF University Center Hosted by WJCT News Director, Scott Kim

How Do We Form a Team? It's easy—go to your friends, family, employees or co-workers and recruit eight players. Then decide on a team name. Past years' teams have included the "Know Brainers," and the Masterminds," while others have incorporated their neighborhoods or companies into their names.

How do we sign up?

Continental table sponsorships are available for $1,000. All Continental table sponsors will be recognized on the night of the event, and each table will display the sponsor's name.

Individual tickets can be purchased for $85, and tables of eight for $650.

Can individuals and couples register? Yes—individuals and couples are grouped to form teams of eight.

Support of Silent Auction and Chinese Raffle—Donations welcome...perhaps a dinner hosted at your home or at a local restaurant or club, a weekend getaway, a golf package, a spa package, a piece of art or put together a fabulous gift basket with an international theme.

Don't forget: The World Affairs Council of Jacksonville is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. All WorldQuest proceeds are used to promote our top-priority education outreach efforts through our Great Decisions, World in Transition and student Academic WorldQuest initiatives.
